Africans

Chorus:

Does the sun shine for them much brighter
That they realize the worth of life
Does the moon stand for them much higher
That they still see the stars at night

Versel:

How come they're happy
With their simple way of life
How come they ain't runnin'
They're not rushin' but still got time
Look at our frowning faces
Greedy, stingy and sly
Can't get enough, huntin' for riches
Using our backstabbin' knives

Bridge: oh...! 4x Africans!

Chorus:

Does the sun shine for them much brighter
That they realize the worth of life
Does the moon stand for them much higher
That they still see the stars at night

How come their family
Is fed by happy husband and wife
How come they're still laughin'
Without a TV and a 'Benz' to drive
Look at our envious faces
So hard to be satisfied
Working n strugglin', steelin' n hustlin'
Hunting for the meaning of life

Bridge: oh....! 4x Africans

Chorus:

Does the sun shine for them much brighter
That they realize the worth of life
Does the moon stand for them much higher
That they still see the stars at night
