Endless Melody

Chorus:

It's like an endless melody
That is played for you & me
And the story starts all over again
Every time we meet I feel
Butterflies but what's the deal
We start some' but then end up
Leavin it open

It's like an endless melody
That is played for you & me
And the story starts all over again
Every time I see your face
Is like I can't resist your grace
'n I fall deeper in love with you again

When I look into your eyes
I think I see your soul
When I'm not right by your side
An emptiness unfolds
In true reality
I'm scared to feel this way
Don't know what it's gonna be
And if this magic will stay

And the story starts all over again
Every time I see your face
Is like I can't resist your grace
'n I fall deeper in love with you again

Should I let my feelings flow
Holding back, I can't – oh no!
I fell in love from head to toe
Hoping it never ends
This endless melody
Puts me under your spell
It's voodoo that you use on me
Are you infected as well
