Don't you worry

It's amazing to me how vulnerable people can be
You know they always fear changes
I see with us it ain't going differently
'cause this is new to you and me Since it seems like we are getting seriously involved with one another 'Cause for the past year we have both been single Now you slowly see your life changing your days get filled up with the one you're dating I'm not the kind that's trying to lock you up will give you all the freedom that you need

Chorus:

Don't you worry bout a thang
I will always have your back
Don't you worry bout a thang
Anything you need
I'll take care of that

It is so great to me how flexible people can be in all kinds of situations
As long as they do what they really love they're willing to sacrifice so much Now that we're still on cloud nine we don't see nothing wrong with one another
And we don't want no other lover

Our challenge is to keep that level learn from what we went through in the past We all are marked with scars it's up to us to really make it last

Chorus:

Don't you worry bout a thang
I will always have your back
Don't you worry bout a thang
Anything you need
I'll take care of that

Bridge:

Living together in harmony
That's what I wish for you and me (oh oh oh oh)
Highest respect and honesty
That's what we need if love should last eternally

Chorus:

Don't you worry bout a thang
I will always have your back
Don't you worry bout a thang
Anything you need
I'll take care of that
