4 you

If I only knew what I feel for you
I'd be a step further
'Cause right now
lots of crazy thoughts running through my mind Oh my!

Don't know if you really want me or if I would want you to be all mine
'n everything around me is like a revolution
'n me trying to find a solution
Got me spinning in my own tornado
No idea where to go
I guess time will show
All I know is that

Chorus:

My heart is beating 4 you
My soul is longing 4 you
You're constantly running thru my mind
My joy & pain's caused by you
I day and night-dream about you
'n still sometimes I try to deny
That I'm falling in love
Don't know if I shall feel like I feel 4 you

Trying to live for the moment
I know things will change
They constantly do but I don't wanna rush us into something that we might regret one day
Don't want that, no!
You know my life-philosophy:
What is meant to be will be
'n still this insecurity is driving me crazy
Not knowing if I can give all of my heart to you Might be the fear of being hurt, too
Wish one day you say
Why do you worry
All I know is

Chorus:

My heart is beating 4 you
My soul is longing 4 you
You're constantly running thru my mind
My joy & pain's caused by you
I day and night-dream about you
'n still sometimes I try to deny
That I'm falling in love
feel like I feel 4 you
